

Collaboration Services

Communication. Interactivity. Accessibility. These things are vital to each and every business. Too often, however, we run into road blocks, barriers preventing the smooth and timely distribution of information. If only there was a way to streamline these processes to ensure their effectiveness...

Now there is. With The AME Group's Collaborative Services, your business can easily communicate, interact, share, and distribute information. Not only will your business enjoy greater productivity, you will enjoy enhanced employee morale with efficiently functioning tools.

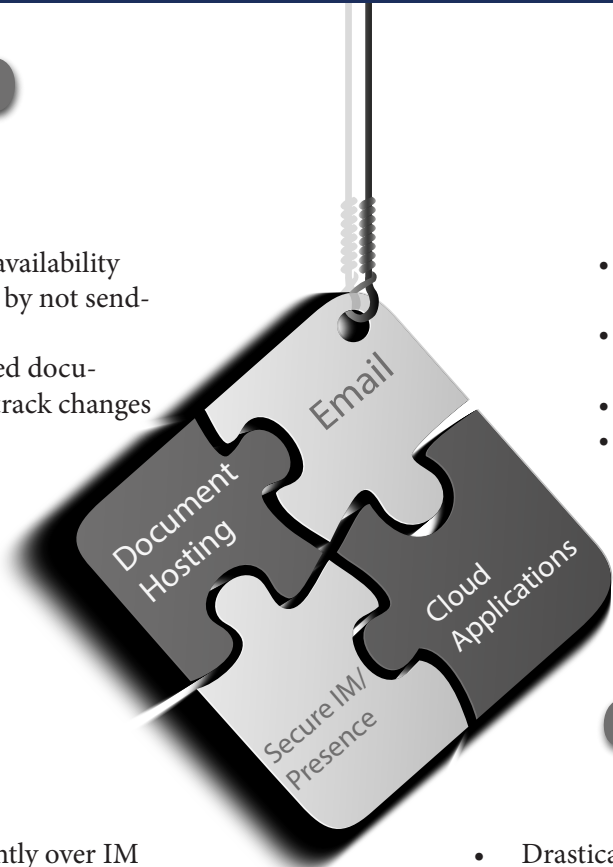

- Increase document availability
- Save personnel time by not sending repeated emails
- Collaborate on shared documents to efficiently track changes

- Exchange information with robust, adaptive utilities
- Enhance communication with fully-customizable rich text
- Create high-quality mailings
- Communicate effectively with a group with functional distribution lists

- Communicate instantly over IM secured by industry standards
- Instantly share files or collaborate on whiteboard or video
- View personnel availability with presence features

- Drastically reduce downtime due to application failure
- Minimize licensing costs
- Always run the latest version of software
- Increase equipment performance with fewer local applications